

Rooted in Christ and Catholic tradition and under the guidance of its patron, St Edmund's aims to realise the God-given potential, in body, mind and spirit, of all members of its community through service and leadership.

Avita Pro Fide !

The College is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

Role title:	Teacher of Economics and Business Studies – Maternity cover
Reporting to:	Head of Business Studies and Economics
Summary of the role:	BUSINESS STUDIES AND ECONOMICS The Business Studies and Economics department aims to stimulate interest in how businesses work, at an individual, national and global level. We aim to provide pupils with a sound knowledge of business principles in order that they can develop the ability to think as entrepreneurs. As a department, we aim to provide the students with an understanding of key business issues and their application to the real world. The department currently has 4 full-time teachers with a range of teaching experience. Business Studies at St Edmund's College is taught at GCSE, and A Level from Year 10 to Year 13, Economics is taught at A Level. We are seeking to appoint an ambitious and enthusiastic teacher to join a forward thinking and expanding department. We are looking for someone who is an excellent classroom practitioner, can work well within a team, values each student as an individual and will play a full part in the life of the College. The successful candidate should be able to teach Economics and Business Studies to A Level.
Line management responsibility for:	Promoting and safeguarding the welfare of children and young persons for who you are responsible and with whom you come into contact.
Main duties and responsibilities:	Key Responsibilities: Business Studies and/or Economics <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To teach classes as allocated by the Head of Department following whole school and departmental policies • To ensure all students have access to a rigorous learning experience, which is differentiated to their needs • To ensure that assessment is an integral part of your everyday teaching and is used to inform and set appropriate targets and teaching strategies • To collaborate with other members of the department and contribute to the departmental development of the curriculum, organisation of resources and to the review of whole school policies • To maintain standards of student behaviour and discipline within the classroom and elsewhere in school • To help to maintain an organised, engaging and interactive learning environment particularly in your classroom(s) • To liaise with the HOD for the target setting of students • To encourage students and present them with the opportunity to develop a range of skills and techniques, personal skills and attributes essential for working life • To contribute to the provision of student enrichment activities within the Business Studies and Economics department

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To attend appropriate INSET and CPD to enhance the delivery of individual and departmental objectives Business Studies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To enable students to critically examine the aims, objectives and practices of business organisations from their economic, environmental and social perspectives • To encourage students to develop an understanding of the methods and language used for decision making in business organisations • To provide opportunities to examine the implications of complex and changing situations in business • To enable students to understand and interpret information in verbal, numerical and graphical format, and present their findings through written communication and with the use of ICT Economics <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To enable students to critically examine economic theory and apply this in practice • To encourage students to develop an understanding of economic methods and language • To provide opportunities to examine the implications of complex and changing dynamics in different economic contexts across the world and consider creative solutions to current and future economic challenges • To help enable students to understand and interpret information in verbal, numerical and graphical format, and present their findings through written communication and with the use of ICT
Line management duties and responsibilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You may also be required to undertake other duties of an appropriate level and nature as and when requested by the Headmaster, Senior Leadership Team and Head of Department

The College is committed to safeguarding the welfare of children, therefore, all candidates will be required to undergo an Enhanced DBS check

We may take up references, before short-listing has taken place, which will include questions about past disciplinary actions or allegations in relation to behaviour with children and may approach previous employers for information to verify particular experience or qualifications.