

ST EDMUND'S COLLEGE

UNIFORM LIST RHETORIC (Sixth Form) – BOYS

It is expected that Rhetoricians will set an impeccable standard of dress at all times. Please note that suits are not available from the College retail specialist, Stevensons.

Please read these guidelines.

- A plain, business-like, dark grey, navy blue or black suit with lapels.
- Jeans or chinos are not permitted, anything with rivets or patch pockets is unacceptable.
- A plain dark grey, navy blue or black waistcoat (optional)
- A plain, navy, grey or black, v-necked fine knit pullover without any pattern or texture such as cables (optional).
- A white shirt or light coloured (unpatterned) shirt with a collar and buttoned to the neck.
- A House or College tie (available from Stevensons)
- Plain dark grey, navy blue or black socks.
- Black sensible shoes with a sensible heel and a limited number of eyelets. Boots are not permitted. Canvas shoes and trainers are not permitted.
- Jackets must be worn when walking around the College between lessons and in all public areas of the College.

Please consult with the Co-Director of Rhetoric before purchasing an item that may not be suitable.

BAGS	A practical bag suitable for carrying and protecting pupils' books and equipment. Boarders only – two named mesh laundry bags.
HAIR	Must be short and tidy. Long hair and attention seeking hairstyles are not permitted. Facial hair is also not permitted.
SHAVING	Boys should be clean shaven at all times.
JEWELLERY	Only a neck chain with cross or medal and one plain ring may be worn but must be removable. Bracelets and earrings are not permitted. Jewellery should not be ostentatious.
SPORTS EQUIPMENT	Two pairs of regulation shorts and regulation sports top. Trainers with a non-marking sole, football boots, tennis racquet.
GENERAL	All clothing and property must be fully labelled. The College cannot be responsible for any personal property.